

Name _____

Date _____

Monster: Pages 26-88

Complete.

Review

1. Why does Steve have to prove he is innocent rather than being presumed innocent by the jury?
He did this to make the jury think he never did the crime

2. Why was Ms. O'Brien starting to get a little nervous about how the trial was going?
The trial is getting out of hand for O'Brien

3. Why didn't Steve go up to speak to the preacher when he visited?
He is not allowed to tell anyone about the case

4. Why was the lack of fingerprints so crucial to Steve's case?
The finger prints show who they belong to

5. Why didn't James King think it was a good idea to rob a bank?
It was going to cause them problems with the police

6. What was one of Steve's nightmares?
Going to jail

7. Who did James King think you could rob without getting into too much trouble?
A foreign store

8. How was Bolden saved from some jail time?
He was saved by the finger prints never matched the murder weapon

9. How did Detectives Karyl and Williams try to play with Steve's head?
They played with his head because they wanted to see Steve break

10. What is the one thing Steve has going for him according to his attorney?
He has going is that he never killed the man

11. What did the detectives say was going to happen to Steve?
He was going to jail if they found anything related to him

12. What happens when Steve has the scene fade in or fade out?
He is in jail

Name _____

Date _____

13. Why are the cigarettes such an important piece of evidence in the trial?

He bought them from a person who robbed it from a store

14. How did the defense attorneys try to discredit Zinzi?

They try to discredit Zinzi by him not robbing the cigarettes from the store

15. How was Bobo different on the stand than on the street?

He was crazy out in public but when he was in court he was respectable

Date _____